

Façade Renovations

Before

Design

After

Design Guidelines

Downtown Buildings: Styles, Elements & Maintenance

The Town of Halifax has been the recipient of historic preservation since 1977. Originally incorporated as the town of Halifax in 1784, it was the first town in the state. The architectural character of the downtown is the result of a long history of development. The architectural character of the downtown is the result of a long history of development. The architectural character of the downtown is the result of a long history of development.

Buildings with Architectural Character

Buildings with architectural character are those that have been built in a style that is representative of the town's history. These buildings are those that have been built in a style that is representative of the town's history. These buildings are those that have been built in a style that is representative of the town's history.

Preserved Buildings

Preserved buildings are those that have been built in a style that is representative of the town's history. These buildings are those that have been built in a style that is representative of the town's history. These buildings are those that have been built in a style that is representative of the town's history.

Building Style

The goal of the downtown building style is to preserve the architectural character of the town. This is done by ensuring that new buildings are built in a style that is representative of the town's history. This is done by ensuring that new buildings are built in a style that is representative of the town's history. This is done by ensuring that new buildings are built in a style that is representative of the town's history.

Town of Halifax, Virginia

Signs & Lighting

Signs are an important part of the town's identity. They provide information and direction to visitors. Signs are an important part of the town's identity. They provide information and direction to visitors. Signs are an important part of the town's identity. They provide information and direction to visitors.

Signage

Signage is an important part of the town's identity. It provides information and direction to visitors. Signage is an important part of the town's identity. It provides information and direction to visitors. Signage is an important part of the town's identity. It provides information and direction to visitors.

Lighting

Lighting is an important part of the town's identity. It provides information and direction to visitors. Lighting is an important part of the town's identity. It provides information and direction to visitors. Lighting is an important part of the town's identity. It provides information and direction to visitors.

Town of Halifax, Virginia

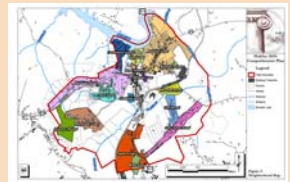

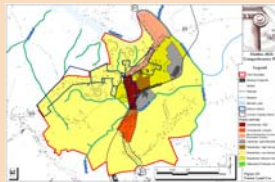

THE ART OF DOWNTOWN REVITALIZATION

Building Adaptive Reuse

Comprehensive Plan

Gateway Design

Halifax Courthouse Historic District

